Newsletter No.2

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are certainly back into the swing of school life, the children have certainly been very well behaved and have displayed excellent attitudes towards their learning. Well done to all!

Following the sad news that Queen Elizabeth has passed away we have now entered a period of national mourning. In school we have reflected on her service to our country and talked about how she lived her life with integrity and dedication. The Queen has been a constant in all of our lives and over the past week we have been reminded how much her presence contributed to our national identity. May she rest in peace.

Best wishes

A. McInire

Principal
