Newsletter No.12

Dear Parents and Carers,

We'd love you to join us in school for our Christingle service tomorrow at 9.00am. This is always a special occasion in our school calendar, where we come together as a community to reflect, sing, and start our journey towards Christmas. We will also be lighting the first candle on our Advent Wreath as the first Sunday of Advent falls on 30th November this year. Have a wonderful weekend, whether it's a busy one full of festive fun or a calmer one at home.

Best Wishes

A. Myrnie

Principal

Christmas Events

We've got lots of festive fun planned to help us celebrate the season together! To help us with organisation, please ensure you complete the form promptly along with any necessary payments.

Christmas Lunch

Please remember to order your child's Christmas Lunch on the SchoolGrid website by Friday 5th December. If you have any issues ordering online, please speak to the school office.

Christmas Post

From Monday, our Christmas Post Box will be open. Children are welcome to send Christmas cards to their friends. Please help our hardworking post sorters by ensuring each card is clearly addressed, with the year group on the envelope.

Nativity

Our Key Stage One and EYFS pupils have been busily preparing for their Nativity, and we can't wait for you to see their wonderful efforts. We do have a few spare tickets for Wednesday's performance, the 10th of December—please get in touch with the school office if you'd like some extras.
